PREPARING OUR HEARTS FOR THE BUSINESS MEETING!

Isaiah 43:19

Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.

Introduction:

God Is the Author of Every New Beginning

The new season is not man-made—it is God-ordained.

We do not force change;

we discern what God is already doing.

New Seasons Often Begin in Unfamiliar Places

God speaks of wilderness and desert,

yet promises ways and rivers.

This reminds us that:

* Difficulty does not cancel God’s plan

* Uncertainty does not delay God's power

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts…" — Isaiah 55:8

Discernment Is Required: "Shall Ye Not Know It?"

God is working—but are we paying attention?

A business meeting without spiritual discernment becomes mere administration.

But when we discern God's movement, planning becomes participation in His will.

"Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain…" — Psalm 127:1

- We Come with Humble Hearts

This meeting is not about personal preferences

but God's purpose.

"God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble." — James 4:6

- We Commit to Unity Over Opinion

We may differ in ideas, but we stand united in Christ.

“That ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind…”□— 1 Corinthians 1:10

➢ We Choose Faithfulness as Stewards

We are stewards of God’s resources, vision, and people.

“It is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.”□— 1 Corinthians 4:2

Objective

The Importance of the Church’s Business Meeting

Especially at the Start of a New Year

1. It Aligns the Church with God’s Direction

A New Year is not just a calendar change

it is a spiritual checkpoint.

Proverbs 16:25

There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

A business meeting allows the church to pause, pray, and seek God’s will together.

“Commit thy works unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established.”— Proverbs 16:3 (KJV)

Through planning, goal-setting, and decision-making, the church declares that God is the Head, not human ideas.

2. It Promotes Order, Not Confusion

1 Corinthians 14:33

For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

God values order in His church.

Business meetings help clarify plans, roles, budgets, and ministries for the coming year.

“Let all things be done decently and in order.”— 1 Corinthians 14:40 (KJV)

When matters are discussed openly and orderly, unity is protected and misunderstandings are avoided.

3. It Encourages Accountability and Faithful Stewardship

A New Year meeting allows the church to:

* Review God’s faithfulness in the past year

* Account for finances and ministries

* Plan responsibly for future work

“Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.”

1 Corinthians 4:2 (KJV)

Transparency builds trust, and trust strengthens the body of Christ.

4. It Strengthens Unity and Shared Ownership

Ephesians 4:3-5

3 Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.

4 There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;

5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

When members are informed and involved,

they don’t just attend church—they become the church.

The church must function according to God’s purpose

Ephesians 3:10

To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,

“And they continued steadfastly in the apostles’ doctrine and fellowship…”— Acts 2:42 (KJV)

A business meeting fosters fellowship, cooperation, and a shared burden for the work of God.

5. It Sets the Spiritual and Practical Vision for the Year

The New Year business meeting answers key questions:

* Where has God brought us from?

* Where is He leading us next?

* How can every member participate?

“Where there is no vision, the people perish.”— Proverbs 29:18 (KJV)

Vision gives direction, motivation, and purpose to the church family.

6. It Honors God Through Wise Planning

Planning does not replace faith—

it demonstrates faith.

“For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost…?”— Luke 14:28 (KJV)

A business meeting helps the church prepare wisely while trusting God fully.

Concluding Thought (Short Exhortation)

A church business meeting is not merely administrative—it is spiritual stewardship.

As we begin a New Year,

gathering to plan, pray, and decide together

declares that we move forward as one body, under one Lord, for one purpose.

“Except the LORD build the house, they labour in vain that build it.”— Psalm 127:1 (KJV)

First let us be mindful for our:

I. Mandate

What Is the Mandate of the Church?

The mandate of the Church is the divine mission given by Jesus Christ—what the Church must do,

why it exists, and how it lives in the world.

It is not optional, cultural, or temporary;

it is biblical, eternal, and Christ-centered.

THE MANDATE OF THE CHURCH

Christ's Mission, Our Marching Orders

A. EXALTATION — Glorifying God Above All

 Ephesians 1:12; 1 Corinthians 10:31

The Church exists first to glorify God.

* Purpose: Worship Him

* Practice: Praise, prayer, obedience

* Priority: God's glory over man's agenda

"That we should be to the praise of his glory." — Ephesians 1:12

Before we do anything for God, we must delight in God.

B. EVANGELISM — Proclaiming the Gospel to the World

 Matthew 28:19–20; Mark 16:15

The Church is commissioned to go, preach, and make disciples.

 Message: The Gospel of Christ

 Mission: All nations, all people

 Method: Giving and Going, not waiting

“Go ye therefore, and teach all nations…” — Matthew 28:19

The Church is not a fortress to hide in,

but a force to reach out.

C. EDIFICATION — Building Believers to Maturity

 Ephesians 4:11–16; Colossians 1:28

Ephesians 4:11-16

11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;

12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:

13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;

15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

and grow up in Christ

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.

Colossians 1:28

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus:

The Church must nurture spiritual growth.

 Teaching: The Word of God

 Training: Spiritual disciplines

 Transformation: Christlikeness

"Till we all come… unto a perfect man." — Ephesians 4:13

Converts must become committed disciples.

D. EQUIPPING — Preparing the Saints for Ministry

 Ephesians 4:12; 2 Timothy 2:2

Leaders do not do all the work—

the Church is a mobilized body.

 Every believer: A minister

 Every gift: Necessary

 Every role: Valuable

“For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry.” — Ephesians 4:12

The Church grows strongest when everyone serves.

E. EXEMPLIFICATION — Displaying Christlike Living

 Matthew 5:16; Philippians 2:15

Philippians 2:15

That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

The Church must live what it proclaims.

 Holiness: In conduct

 Love: In relationships

 Light: In the world

“Let your light so shine before men.” — Matthew 5:16

The Church is God’s visible testimony in an invisible world.

F. EXTENSION — Expressing God’s Love Through Service

 James 1:27; Galatians 6:10

James 1:27

Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

Galatians 6:10

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

The Church demonstrates the Gospel through compassion and good works.

 Care: For the poor and hurting

 Compassion: In action

 Concern: Beyond church walls

“Let us do good unto all men…” — Galatians 6:10

Good works do not save—but saved people do good works.

G. EXPECTATION — Living in Hope of Christ’s Return

 Titus 2:13; Matthew 24:44

Matthew 24:44

Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.

The Church lives with an eternal perspective.

 Hope: Christ will return

 Holiness: Be ready

 Hurry: Redeem the time

“Looking for that blessed hope…” — Titus 2:13

 The Church looks upward, outward, and forward.

SUMMARY STATEMENT

The Church exists to glorify God, proclaim the Gospel, build believers, equip servants, model Christ,

serve the world, and prepare for His return.

ONE-SENTENCE DEFINITION

The mandate of the Church is to glorify God by making disciples of all nations through the proclamation of the Gospel, the nurturing of believers, and the demonstration of Christ’s love—until He returns.

1 Corinthians 6:18

Flee fornication. Every sin that a man doeth is without the body;

but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body.

Hebrews 13:4

Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

1 Thessalonians 4:3-6

3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication:

4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour;

5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God:

□to live holily and justly

6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified

Matthew 5:32

But I say unto you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery.

e. Protect your purity. The pastor will not officiate the wedding of all the members who committed premarital sex or any such against to the morals of the church. (Unbeliever relationship included.)

implemented to 3yrs and up members!

Matthew 18:15-17

15 Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother.

16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

IV. Reminders to all our commitments

Why am I reminding your commitments

but what does it mean by commitment?

—Commitment is defined as a willingness to give your time and energy and money to something that you believe in,

or a promise or firm decision to do something.

—Commitment is also a personal thing.

It is a strong indicator of a self-discipline,

resilience (flexible, and willing to endure)

and persistence.

It is a value that differentiates

the stout-hearted from the weak.

—People who are committed,

do their very best

even outside their comfort zones.

Why I am reminding you cheerful giving principles?

a.This is the right thing to do, it's Biblical.

b.Antidote of being selfish and covetous

c.We practiced it and we experienced God's favor

d.I want you to reach your full potential that God hath set before you, The best blessings are still ahead

e.I'm just helping you to fulfill your commitment

f. We have different activities, project and operations

Ecclesiastes 5:4-5

3. When thou vowest a vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed.

4 Better is it that thou shouldest not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay.

—Personal Profile

V. Reminders to Attend our regular fellowship for men and Ladies once in a while, and prayer time every Saturday evening for all the leaders and those who has a burden to prepare our Sunday worship

VI. Presentation of our Year Calendar

VII. Our Vision

i. To see more converts used by God effectively in the ministry, duplicating themselves by using discipleship by multiplication principles, in accordance in our Great commission.

ii. in 5 years time we will fully paid the acquired property and erected the 4 storey building of our church as the first monument of His grace.

We will make sure to build a beautiful and special auditorium to our given property, as we believe with the principle of "Start where you are and use what you've got."

(in our present sanctuary inside out and the parsonage)

—Praise God! In just four years, we have fully paid the first transaction for our acquired property, amounting to 1.5 million. We are truly grateful to the Lord. However, we have prayerfully adjusted our plans due to the need for more parking space. In addition, we are trusting God to expand our property to 1,000 square meters or more. If this will not be possible in this location, we believe the Lord will lead us to another place. This is our prayer and vision for the next three to five years.

iii. we want each family to grow in their relationship, be bless, and to reach their decade of destiny.

iv. we will lead and train our people to be Christ-like as our ultimate goal.

2 Corinthians 8:9

For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

Philippians 2:5-8

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

Mangagkaroon kayo sa inyo ng pagiisip, na ito'y na kay Cristo Jesus din naman:

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

Na siya, bagama't nasa anyong Dios, ay hindi niya inaring isang bagay na nararapat panangnan ang pagkapantay niya sa Dios,

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

Kundi bagkus hinubad niya ito, at naganyong alipin, na nakitulad sa mga tao:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

At palibhasa'y nasumpungan sa anyong tao, siya'y nagpakababa sa kaniyang sarili, na nagmasunurin hanggang sa kamatayan, oo, sa kamatayan sa krus.

Matthew 16:24

Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

Nang magkagayo'y sinabi ni Jesus sa kaniyang mga alagad, Kung ang sinomang tao'y ibig sumunod sa akin ay tumanggi sa kaniyang sarili, at pasanin ang kaniyang krus, at sumunod sa akin.

“If don’t teach our kids to follow Jesus…

Then the world will teach them how to follow them.

VIII. Actions:

Participate in church leadership meetings,

(even in your small group, and ministries)

offer input on church plans and initiatives, and help implement church goals and projects.

By setting clear objectives and creating actionable plans,

members can effectively grow and leading others as well,

making a positive impact in their families,

communities, and beyond.

IX. Acknowledgement

—To all members who are continuously serving the Lord

—To all cheerful givers

—To all previous hosts

—To the Pastor’s champ

—To all men leading well their own family, for being a good second man, pulpit staff and leading a Bible study.

—Department leaders and ministry leaders.
